

Are you a learner with a disability or dyslexia thinking about going to higher education?

presents:

University Information Day for Disabled and Dyslexic Learners

7 July 2017

9.30am – 4.00pm

University of Greenwich

- Visit a university campus and hear from universities themselves about support they offer
- Listen to current disabled students talk about their own experiences with university life
- Find out information about the needs assessment, disabled students' allowance, assistive technology support

This is a FREE event for learners in years 11, 12, 13, in Further Education and Access to Higher Education courses

For more information visit:

<http://www.accesshe.ac.uk/events/disabledldyslexic/>

To book your place contact guy.cowen-hutton@londonhigher.ac.uk